the laundry company™

“Pioneers of Eco-Friendly Laundry”
— Bloomberg Businessweek

Why choose The Laundry Company?

- An established brand with years of experience and recognition within the laundry industry.
- World class support with a focus on your success and the growth of passive income.
- Ongoing marketing support driving increased business.

How much does it cost to start a laundromat?

- Franchise fee is set at $30,000
- Minimum investment $350,000 - $400,000

95%

The laundromat business boasts a substantially higher success rate than the retail and restaurant sectors.

28%

The average successful laundromat sustains a profit margin that notably exceeds most other retail or service businesses.

Secure your spot in a stable, highly profitable, and forward-thinking business opportunity.

laundrycompany.au

The Laundry Company, originally launched as The Eco Laundry Company, has been at the forefront of eco-friendly laundry practices since its inception. The Laundry Company has grown from a local favorite in Buenos Aires to an internationally recognized brand with a strong presence in New York City. Now, The Laundry Company is poised to bring its innovative laundry services to Australia, offering franchise opportunities and passive business success.

Apply online at laundrycompany.au